

A large, gnarled tree in silhouette against a sunset sky over a beach. The tree is the central focus, with its branches spreading out. The sky is a mix of dark blue and orange, suggesting dusk. The beach is visible in the foreground, and the ocean extends to the horizon.

Tū Whakaruruhau

Data and insights – our collective mahi

116 general practices

206 New FTE

69

HIP

64

HC

73

CSW

786,877

People have access

100,186

Maori

58% of Māori
enrolled population
across Auckland

151,691

Pacific

62% of Pacific
enrolled population
across Auckland

137,270

Youth

57% of youth
enrolled population
across Auckland.

Access Rates by Priority Population in the Past Year

107,678

People supported since March 2020

340,198

Sessions provided
since March 2020

Mean first and last Hua Oranga Overall scores by prioritised ethnicity

Mean first and last Duke scores by prioritised ethnicity

Ethnicity ● Maori ▲ Pacific Peoples ■ Asian + NZ European □ MELAA

Ethnicity ● Maori ▲ Pacific Peoples ■ Asian + NZ European □ MELAA

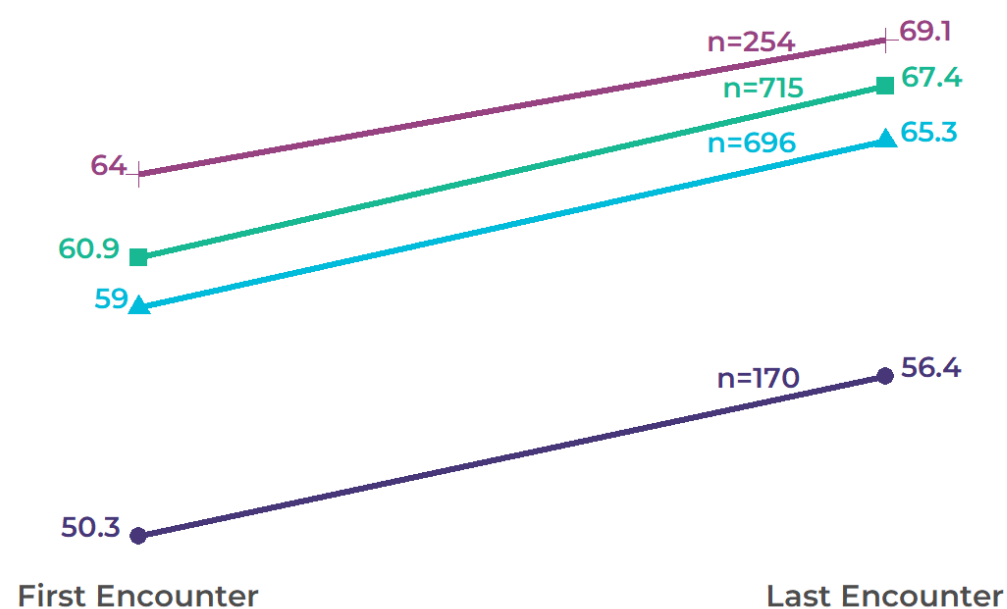

All ethnicities showed improved outcomes

Mean first and last Hua Oranga scores by age group

Age Band ● 13-24 ▲ 25-45 ■ 46-65 + 66+

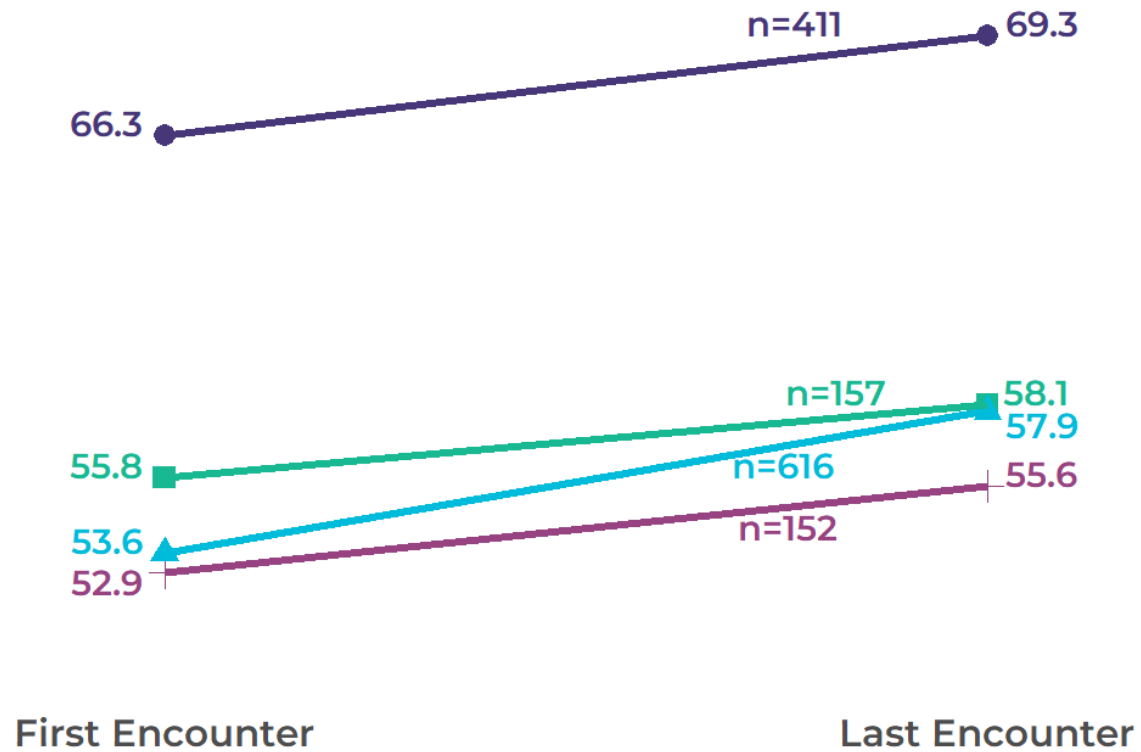

Mean first and last Duke scores by age group

Age Band ● 13-24 ▲ 25-45 ■ 46-65 + 66+

All age groups showed improved outcomes

Figure 22: Mean first and last Hua Oranga Overall scores by support role

All roles showed improved outcomes

Support Role(s) ● HC ▲ HIP ■ HC and HIP + Awhi Ora

By 2026 ...

170 general
practices

285 FTE

1,100,000

People will have access

*They seemed to know how to help me back to myself much quicker by giving me the help I needed.

*From the GPs that I saw and the councillor. My health coach that has helped me with diet and exercise and Awhi Ora who got me onto Hearts and Minds anxiety and depression course where they taught me to breathe again.

I am forever grateful to have my life well on the way back from the depths of despair. They have all played a part in giving me the tools to cope again. Much aroha to the team